

Underprivileged Christian Children's Ministry

Egypt - Ministry updates

From Rawya Boctor's desk

Dear all,

I want to start by extending a BIG thank you to all of you who kept me covered in prayers and in helping provide for my work with the children and their teachers every time the Lord sends me out, God bless you all according to His riches in heavens - you are helping in the enrichment of the lives of many little ones, their parents and their teachers.

By God's grace the estimated number of teachers that have been trained by UCCM from 1984 up to 2010 has reached 1350 representing around 781 school around Egypt, This together with a lot of parenting and counseling individual families for parenting techniques that all come from Biblically based principals. Praise the Lord.

The first three days of every Seminar I give starts with a salvation messages to bring teachers to know the Lord in a personal way plus teaching that enlightens her to how the Bible sees children and values these precious little ones, then the academic program.

It is so exciting to watch faces and minds changing 180 degrees from a worldly point of view to Godly ways and principals.

Did I mention I have the best job in the world?

We work, we play, we make crafts, equipments, and we give and receive unconditional love from both teachers and children, and most importantly: we watch God in action. He delivers, heals, He concurs challenges and hardships; He beats up the enemy and devastates his schemes to hinder the work, cover every need, and performs miracles...

Every year The Lord opens new doors for UCCM, this year was no different, I was invited to preschools that were both from well off areas and ones with many needs, they both had one thing in common: knowledge of how to teach children and lack of equipment. By the time I was done the schools were well furnished with hand made and locally bought materials and a yearly day planner that has the full Biblical and academical program to follow for many years to come, (All paid for by UCCM).

Lord I thank you and bless you for blessing me; I am waiting in anticipation to serve you more anywhere you send me in many years to come.

Your servant,

Raywa Boctor
